

farm 215 | map and directions

The reserve of farm 215 is accessed from the "fynbos road", the 100km stretch from Stanford to Cape Agulhas, the southern-most point of the African continent and entrance to the Agulhas National Park.

The reserve itself is located in the middle of a mosaic of vineyards, farm-land, flower-orchards and unspoilt ancient nature. The distance from Cape Town is about 200 km. The gate to farm 215 is about 20 km from the fishing village of Gansbaai. The last few kilometers to farm 215 is gravel road, suitable for all normal cars except for low lying sport cars.

Although in the middle of nature in a rural area, farm 215 is easy to find. See below five steps to come from Cape Town to farm 215.

ROUTE DESCRIPTION TO FARM 215 FROM CAPE TOWN

(For route description from the east (Swellendam / Bredasdorp) please scroll down)

Distance from Cape Town : about 180 km

1. from Cape Town / Cape Town airport take the N2 to the east

direction [airport] / Somerset West

after approximately half an hour you are in Somerset West

climb and descend Sir Lowry's pass (part of N2) | drive past Grabouw and Elgin climb and descend Houwhoek pass (part of N2)

2. at Bot Rivier, leave N2 and take turn off to Hermanus (R 43)

drive through Hermanus out of Hermanus, continue on R 43

25 km after Hermanus, you will see Stanford to your right (keep it there) after you have passed Stanford continue on the same R 43 towards Gansbaai drive through Gansbaai and continue on the same R 43

3. 5 km after Gansbaai : turn left to "Elim, Baardskeerdersbos"

After 8km this road turns from tar into a gravel road (ignore turn off to Avoka)
Continue on the gravel road up to the hill

After you have passed the vineyards, you will see a brown tourism sign "Farm 215"

4. turn left at the first possibility after this sign gate at road-entrance has sign: "farm 215"

follow this road for approx. 2 km

5. turn right at sign "farm 215"

follow road to main house

ROUTE DESCRIPTION TO FARM 215 FROM SWELLENDAM

(via Bredasdorp and Elim)

Distance from Swellendam : about 130 km | On gravel road : 24 km / 20 – 30 minutes (suitable for all normal cars but check for potholes)

1. Drive west on the N2 from Swellendam
2. 10 km after Swellendam, leave the N2 and turn left to Bredasdorp (319)
3. In Bredasdorp follow the signs to Struisbaai / Elim
4. 4 km outside of Bredasdorp, turn right to Elim
5. Continue on this road for 36 km
6. Once in Elim, turn right in the direction of Gansbaai
7. Out of Elim it becomes a gravel road
8. After 16 km on this road there is a turn to the left to Gansbaai / Pearly Beach: IGNORE this sign and carry on straight to Baardskeerdersbos.
9. Carry on for about 9km after Baardskeerdersbos and you will see a brown tourism sign "farm 215"
10. Turn right at the first possibility after this sign
11. Follow this road for 2km
12. Turn right into the reserve at sign and follow signs up to reception